

How to Tie a Shemagh Ninja-Style

paracordgalaxy.com

If you want your eye space small to keep dirt or sand out, make sure you wrap it tight and tie your knot high.

paracordgalaxy.com

Step 1: Fold your shemagh in half to form a triangle. Place on your head with the fold across your forehead and about a third of the shemagh on one side.

paracordgalaxy.com

Step 2: Bring the short side under your chin and toward your ear and hold with your right hand.

paracordgalaxy.com

Step 3: With the left hand, bring the long side across your face and over your nose.

paracordgalaxy.com

Step 4: Wrap the long side around the back of the head and bring both ends together.

paracordgalaxy.com

Step 5: Tie a knot with both ends to secure.

ParacordGalaxy.com

Tie a Shemagh British SAS-Style

paracordgalaxy.com

paracordgalaxy.com

Step 1: Fold your shemagh in half to form a triangle. Place on your head with the fold across your forehead and about a third on one side.

paracordgalaxy.com

Step 2: Bring the short side behind your head and hold it at the back of your head.

paracordgalaxy.com

Step 3: Bring the long side also behind your head over the short side to secure it in place.

paracordgalaxy.com

Step 4: Continue wrapping the long side across your face and nose.

paracordgalaxy.com

Step 5: Bring the end to the back and tuck it in as shown.

ParacordGalaxy.com

Tie a Shemagh as Neck Warmer

paracordgalaxy.com

paracordgalaxy.com

Step 1: Fold your shemagh in half to form a triangle. Roll at the fold a few times until it looks about like this.

paracordgalaxy.com

Step 2: Turn the shemagh so your fold is toward you. Place around the neck and cross both sides around the back.

paracordgalaxy.com

Step 4: Bring the ends around to the back and tie an overhand knot.

paracordgalaxy.com

Step 3: Bring both ends to the front and cross them under the triangle flap.

paracordgalaxy.com

Step 5: Tuck in the ends at the top as shown.